Dear Ms. Warmerdam:

On March 24, 2009, I received the following press release by Professor Glen Chase regarding a possible math error, which according to Dr. Chase, caused the Department of Pesticide Regulation (DPR) to underestimate the public health risks associated with the pesticide application to eradicate the Light Brown Apple Moth (LBAM).

As you might imagine, many of my constituents are interested in this matter and I would appreciate learning DPR's response to this claim. Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,

JARED HUFFMAN
